PINCHOT HITS MONOPOLIES

Rousing Public Meeting Held in Philadelphia Wednesday

SPECIAL INTERESTS SCORED

Candidate Lewis Exposes the False Pretense of the Gang Legislators Who Defeated the Workman's Compensation Bill—Judge Brumm Wants the Rascals Turned Out.

At a rousing meeting held Wednesday night in Textile Hall, Kensington avenue and Cumberland street, in Philadelphia, stirring addresses were made in opposition to monopoly, special interests and bossism in politics by Gifford Pinchot, candidate for the Washington party nomination for United States senator, and William Draper Lewis and Judge Charles N. Brumm, candidates for the Washington party gubernatorial nomination.

Exposes the Gang.

Doctor Lewis exposed the false pretense of gang legislators who defeated the workman's compensation bill introduced in the last legislature.

"The argument was advanced to defeat the bill drawn by the state industrial accidents commission; that the adoption of such a law would ruin the small manufacturer and the small employer," he said. "This argument was one of the excuses the senate gave for carrying out the directions of its undisputed dictators that the bill be defeated."

Doctor Lewis aroused great enthusiasm when he said that in a recent visit to Indiana county he found that every man who had supported Roosevelt in 1912 intended to vote the Washington party ticket next November, and also that the ticket would receive the support of many who voted for Taft, as well as a large number of Democrats who will be disgruntled by the result at the primaries.

Pinchot Attacks Monopolies.

Mr. Pinchot declared that the monopoly of bossism in politics is as grave a menace to the welfare of the people as any other monopoly. The great task before the people, he said, is to eliminate monopoly of the natural resources of the country, and to abolish the evil of the power wielded by special interests aided by the political bosses.

One of the first monopolies he would fight is the anthracite monopoly which under forty men, controls 87 per cent. of the state's hard coal and compels Philadelphians to pay a dollar a ton more than they should pay. He urged the creation of a national commission which would have the power not only to fix the price of coal, but of all other great necessities of life.

Judge Brumm on Rascals.

Judge Brumm upheld the right of the workingman to form labor unions and declared that in that way only is he able to fight the combinations of capital. He was heartily applauded when he told how President Roosevelt brought the mine operators to terms in the great anthracite coal strike.

He was the right man in the right place at the right time the judge said, and added that if Colorado had such a man at the present time there would be no murdering of men women and children by the militia.

"Turn the rascals out, both elective and appointive, and give the state a thorough housecleaning," was urged by Judge Brumm as the only way to win a victory over despotism and political monopoly.

Being Rapidly Completed.

The building which will be used as a storage place for wagons, being erected on the rear of Al Kline's Locust street lot, is nearing completion.

Orlando B. Jones Dead.

Orlando B. Jones, of Ramey, died at the Philipsburg hospital of blood poisoning on Wednesday night, aged 68 years. One of his sons, Charles B. resides at Ramey.

Rt. [illegible] Rogers Israel, bishop of the [illegible]e of Erie, will visit St. Andrews parish Sunday evening, May 3, for purposes of confirmation.

STRAUSBAUGH GOES TO PEN

Strenuous Effort to Prevent His Return Is Ended

HAD VIOLATED HIS PAROLE

Judge Bell Decides That Governor Has Right to Issue His Mandate When He Believes a Paroled Prisoner Has Failed to Conduct Himself in an Orderly Manner.

Harry Strausbaugh was taken back to the Western penitentiary this morning by Charles R. Schaum, one of the officers of that institution. Thursday afternoon Judge Bell handed down his decree in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Attorney Chase in an endeavor to have Strausbaugh released from the custody of Chief of Police McHenry who arrested Strausbaugh on the charge of fighting and from whose custody the penitentiary authorities sought to take the prisoner to Pittsburgh, on the charge of violation of his parole.

Strausbaugh will have to serve the maximum term of the indeterminate sentence given him by the Clearfield county court in 1913 for assault and battery and resisting an officer.

Judge Bell's Conclusions.

After relating the history of the case and referring to the acts of assembly of 1909 and 1911 as to parole of prisoners, Judge Bell refers to the argument of counsel for Strausbaugh that "the mandate (of the governor) does not show a sufficient finding by the governor, in that the act requires that he may issue only "whenever it shall appear to the governor * * * that the convict * * * has violated the terms of his or her parole," and it is contended that it actually shows that it is issued purely on the representation of the board of inspectors that the terms of the parole have been violated. It was not necessary that the mandate should state anything on the subject. The issuance thereof by the governor would be presumed to be upon a finding by him of the facts, and it would sufficiently "appear" whenever he, upon

HOSPITAL BENEFIT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Musical Entertainment of a High Order to be Given

Citizens of Clearfield and vicinity will be given an opportunity to help the hospital and at the same time enjoy a first-class entertainment on Wednesday evening, May 6, when a program of music and moving pictures will be given at the opera hous for the benefit of the hospital.

The principal part of the program consists of twelve musical numbers, given by Clearfield's talented young people, among those taking part being sixteen young ladies and an equal number of young men. These thirty-two musicians will be under the leadership of Miss Nancy Miller and S .C .Stewart, Jr. The music and song for this event are new and have been specially procured for this occasion.

Miss Mary Mitchell, Clearfield's bright song bird, will favor the audience with two songs, and Paul Stauffer will be at his best. The Gerald F. Wallace company will furnish the orchestral numbers.

During the evening five reels of moving pictures will be thrown upon the canvas.

Considering the purpose for which this entertainment will be given and the excellence of the various numbers on the program, the price of admission is very low, being 50 cents for seats on the main floor and 25 cents for seats in the gallery.

The moving pictures start at 8.30.

Fighting on the Street.

Two fights took place on the street Thursday night. One party of pugilists escaped arrest, but in the other affray several young men were locked up or paid their fines.

800 U. S. TROOPS IN COAL FIELDS

Strikers Called on to Lay Down Their Arms.

MAY CONTINUE THE STRIFE.

Hotheads In Ranks Not Willing to Give Up the Fight—Horrors of the Campaign Told at Inquest Over Bodies of Victims of Ludlow Battle. Total Dead Forty-seven.

Denver, May 1.—The Colorado mine strike war has reached the crisis. With 800 United States cavalry in fighting array in the troubled zone the strikers had the choice of laying down their arms and quietly dispersing to their homes within twenty-four hours or facing the rifles and bayonets of the military upholders of the law.

There was no telling from the developments which course they would adopt. One thing is clear—hundreds of hotheads among the ranks of the strikers are not willing to "give up the fight" now that the lives of so many of their comrades have been sacrificed. This is evident from the fighting of the last twenty-four hours, which has claimed anywhere from fifteen to twenty lives. On the other hand, the strikers must realize that the federal troops will not bear trifling with and that continued resistance will only make their cause more hopeless.

Strikers Must Disarm.

In his proclamation President Wilson served notice that the strikers who are classed as "insurrectos" must abandon all show of disorder. Otherwise they will be proceeded against just as though they were rebels against the United States government.

The latest troop arrivals are the 350 members of the Second squadron of the Fifth United States infantry, which arrived at Trinidad from Fort Leavenworth. The officers of the squadron are under orders to disperse both sides. They started for the Ludlow district, where the fiercest fighting of the "war" has taken place.

Militia Withdrawn.

The state militia are already being withdrawn from the strike zone in accordance with the promise which Governor Ammons made to the authorities at Washington when he wired in his call for federal troops. The "evacuation" began when the cavalry called out from Fort Russell in Wyoming reached Canyon City yesterday. It was generally supposed that the state authorities would turn the situation over to the federal troops entirely.

The known dead and wounded in the fighting of the last ten days are numbered as follows:

At Ludlow—Dead, 25; wounded, 6.
At Forbes—Dead, 10; wounded, 7.
At Walsenburg and Vicinity—Dead, 5; wounded, 15.
At Louisville (northern field)—Dead, 2; wounded, 6.
At Chandler—Dead, 1; wounded, 3.
At Rouse—Dead, 1; wounded, 3.
At Aguilar—Dead, 3; wounded, 4.
Total—Dead, 47; wounded, 44.

Some of the many horrors of the trouble are being detailed during the inquest over the bodies of the twenty-five victims of the Ludlow battle. Fourteen children and two women were killed in these shambles.

MRS. SOPHIE BARRETT

Death Calls to Her Eternal Home an Estimable Woman.

Mrs .Sophie DeVincent Barrett, relic of the late Colonel Walter Barrett died at her home on Cherry street Thursday morning after an illness which had confined her to the house for several months. Mrs. Barrett was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander McCleod and was born in Meadville, Pa., on August 31, 1837. On May 29, 1866, she was united in marriage in Wilmington, Delaware, to Colonel Walter Barrett, son of the late Judge George Barrett and wife, her husband preceding her to the grave on February 23, 1900.

Mrs. Barrett was one of the most estimable of women. She was gracious and courteous at all times an active member of the Episcopal church and a woman of more than ordinary literary talents. She founded the Women's Relief corps of Larrimer post, G. A. R. of Clearfield, and was for a term president of the state organization.

The following brother and sisters survive: Mrs .A. R. Powell, Mrs. J. Kay Wrigley and Fenwick McLeod The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Rev. Joseph John officiating. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

CARRANZA WON'T STOP FIGHTING

United States May Recognize Rebel Government.

MEDIATORS DRAFT TERMS.

Learn What Positive Demands Are. Here is the Situation: Wilson Insists on Resignation of Huerta, Latter Refuses and Carranza Won't Consider Dictator.

Vera Cruz, May 1.—A different view is taken here regarding Huerta's attitude toward mediation. Messages received from the capital indicate that his agreement is not without reservation. His mind as to how far he will go to bring about peace has not been made up. Apparently he has never considered the demand to step down and out. It thus becomes evident that mediation is acceptable in principle only.

A message was received here from Lopez Portillo y Rojas, secretary of foreign affairs. He stated that until the details of mediation to which Mexico is willing to agree are decided upon no official statement would be forthcoming. He asserted that he hoped the mediation would bring a solution acceptable to the dignity of both governments.

It is not difficult to determine what will satisfy the dignity of the Mexican government in negotiations of this sort. Huerta is the Mexican government and must therefore be satisfied.

Some attribute to the dictator an intention to take refuge in flight when the time arrives or when American or Mexican troops are battering at the very gates of Mexico City. Those who have been close to him in the stormy months of revolt do not expect him to resign. This is one of the conditions laid down by the United States, and therefore it appears here there is but slight hope of success.

Funston's Troops Land.

The troops of the Fifth brigade under Brigadier General Frederick Funston landed in Vera Cruz from the four transports which came from Galveston and took over the city from the bluejackets who went back to their ships.

When once more upon land the soldiers were dispatched to the sandhills about the city, to the barracks and to other points where they relieved the sailors, while the marine corps was distributed to work with the army. Brigadier General Funston established his headquarters in the barracks deserted by General Gustavo Maas, the Mexican federal commander who fled from Vera Cruz after making a half hearted resistance to the American bluejackets and marines.

Rear Admiral Fletcher in addition to sending the bluejackets back to their ships also withdrew his staff and the staff of General Funston took hold. Admiral Fletcher in his order for the withdrawal of his men highly praised the naval officers and the jackies. He pointed to their valor in action as highly gratifying and also lauded their orderly conduct and perfect handling of the situation.

Admiral Fletcher then personally thanked his men and concluded by saying that the highest honor is due those who gave their lives in the service of their country.

THE JAIL LAWN

Civic Club Has Taken Good Care of the Property.

Editor Clearfield Progress — Will you kindly correct a statement in your last night's paper relative to the jail lawn. Several years ago the ladies of the Civil club took over that property by permission of the county authorities and changed it from a potato patch surrounding a pig pen to a lawn. Since that time the Civic club has been taking care of it year by year and giving it the same uniform attention, as the care of the property properly belongs to the county and was only taken over by the ladies of the Civic club as a matter of civic pride, we feel that the article criticizing us is unjust.

The ladies of the Civic club take this opportunity to thank Sheriff McCloskey for his proffered aid and are delighted that there is one good man who appreciates what they have done and will help them in what they are trying to do.

MEMBER CIVIC CLUB.

Junior Chautauqua.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Chautauqua at Lower Witmer park tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. All who wish to take part in the May Day fete must be present at this meeting.

BANQUETERS ARE DELIGHTED

Clearfield Odd Fellows Have Enjoyable Time

A FINE PROGRAM RENDERED

Nearly 300 Members of Lodge and Their Guests Listen to Splendid Music and Pleasing Recitations—Partake of Abundance of Good Victuals Served by Courteous Ladies.

Thursday night was a big night for the Odd Fellows of Clearfield and their friends, who, to the number of about 235, gathered in their spacious hall on Market street to participate in the annual banquet of the order The members o Lode No. 198, and their guests had a most enjoyable time from 8.30 to 12.00 o'clock. A pleasing program was given, the members being assisted by Miss Hulda Johnson, Mrs. Richard Patterson and Miss Josephine Hoyt. Miss Hoyt gave a recitation in a very interesting manner and the violin solo by Mrs. Patterson was heartily enjoyed. Miss Alice Smith was the pianist during the evening.

Listened to Speeches.

Speeches of an entertaining character were made by Rev. Claude Allenbach, pastor of the Lutheran church, Secretary Kester of the Y. M. C. and impromptu talks by Register and Recorder R. M. Reed, Prothonotary John H. Moore, Charles Graffius, William Boyce and John McCurdy.

The speech making gave the assemblage a keen appetite for the splendid banquet which had been prepared for them and the delicious viands of the menu were most acceptably served by the ladies of the West Side M. E. church. Many were the compliments received by by these ladies for the excellent manner in which they performed their duties as feeders of the hungry.

Master of Ceremonies.

John McCurdy was master of ceremonies, and filled the position in a creditable manner. Mr. McCurdy is fast becoming a past master in the duties of the position. The evening's events will long remain in the memories of those present, and the guests Thursday evening have only one regret—that these banquets are held but once a year.

AN AGED VETERAN DIES AT WALLACETON

F. P. Smith Passes Away After a Prolonged Illness

Wallaceton, May1, 1914.

Sorrow has overshadowed the Smith home. F.P. Smith, of Wallaceton, died Thursday morning, April 30, at 7.30 o'clock, aged 73 years, 2 months and 24 days. The subject of our sketch was a civil war veteran, a member of Co. C., 137th Penns. Vol. Inf. He served faithfully through out the conflict and received an honorable discharge. He had resided in Wallaceton for a number of years, having filled many borough offices and served on the election board for many years. Being sick and afflicted all winter with dropsy and a complication of diseases due to old age and rough army service, he was affectionately and tenderly cared for by his wife and children. His every wish was gratified; nothing was too hard to do to make his last moments happy. He passed away peacefully, being conscious to the last moment before going to the great beyond.

Mr .Smith was drawing a pension from the U. S. government for army service.

On July 17, 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Smith celebrated their golden wedding and on Feb. 6, 1914, they held a reunion of the family and friends, the occasion being Mr. Smith's 73rd birthday.

This death leaves a vacant place in the home that can never be refilled. The old arm chair is vacant. Father has left us to sorrow. He leaves to grieve over his loss the following children: Mrs. E. M. France, of Hollidaysburg, G. P. Smith, of Sandy Ridge; Mrs. M. W. Shivry, of Clearfield; Mrs. Francis Bottorf, Clair and Arthur, of Wallaceton.

WILL OLD SCALE BE ADOPTED?

Question Will Be Settled by Vote Next Saturday

CIRCULAR FROM THE OPERATORS

Men Will Decide Whether or Not They Will Accept the Scale of [illegible] or Strike Against the Proposition—Who are Eligible to Cast the Ballots.

Ballots to be used by the miners of District No. 2 on Monday next, being distributed. The miners will decide whether or not they will accept for the next two years the scale of wages adopted in 1912.

The following circular, signed by the officers of the local union, accompanies the ballots:

The Circular.

Clearfield, Pa., April 30, 1914.

To the membership of District No. 2, U. M. W. of A.,

Greeting:—

You will find enclosed a copy of the proposition submitted by the operators' association or Central Pennsylvania as their ultimatum to our scale committee at a meeting held in Clearfield, Saturday, April 25. This copy of the operators' ultimatum will be self explanatory. Your scale committee fought until the last minute for relief on the car pushing, a specified scale for day-men and the abolition of machines in pillaring and stumps, but every proposition was voted down and all concessions were absolutely refused by the operators.

What Vote Means.

The miners' scale committee [illegible]ed to vote or sign the proposition as submitted by the operators and it is now submitted to our membership for their consideration to vote either to accept or reject the proposition. The joint conference adjourned sine die on Saturday, April 25, without any arrangement being made for any further negotiations if the operators' proposition is rejected. A vote to accept means the renewal of last year's scale in its entirety; a vote to reject means that you vote to strike against its acceptance.

Ballots in sufficient numbers to supply each member with a copy have been sent under separate cover to the secretaries of the various local unions, to assist the members in registering their vote. Monday is hereby ordered on Monday, May 4, 1914, as mentioned in previous circular for the purpose of taking the vote on the proposition submitted.

Who May Vote.

Upon the vote being given local unions will immediately send the result to the district office stating plainly how many votes were cast "No" and how many votes were cast "Yes" with the number of the local union and town located mentioned thereon signed by the president and secretary of the local union. The result of the voting to reach the district office, Clearfield, Pa., not later than Wednesday, May 6, 1914.

The only parties eligible to vote on the acceptance or rejection of this proposition are men who are paying check-off. You are requested to read the instructions herein contained and also the instructions printed on the ballot and govern yourselves accordingly.

Fraternally yours,
Patrick Gilday, Pres.
James Purcell, V. Pres.
Richard Gilbert, Sec-Treas.

A Class Party.

The members of the Freshman class of the High school will hold a party in the High school building tonight.

Restaurant Changes Hands.

W. D. Crispin, of Oil City, has purchased the Blue Ball Restaurant from B. B. Gearhart and has taken charge of the place.

A DuBois Wedding.

Quay J. Grube and Miss Ruby B. Bitner, two young people of DuBois were married in that place last evening.

He Will a Farmer Be.

Frank Howe, having retired from the hotel business at Winburne, has purchased a farm near Morrisdale, and will till the soil hereafter.

COMING EVENTS.

Election of county superintendent of schools, May 5.
Primary election Tuesday, May 19.
General election Tuesday, Nov. 3.
Saturday, May 2, May Day at the Driving Park.

Good evening! Well, be thankful that the April showers are past.

AN ARMISTICE.

The arbitrators in the dispute between the United Sttes and Mexico have asked these two countries to agree to an armistice while negotiations are in progress. This means that if an amistice is consented to by the two republics, neither shall commit an overt act against the other. Realizing that Mexico is in a state of anarchy, with a brutal butcher at the head of the putative government and at least three bloodthirsty insurrectionists are in the field striving to overthrow Huerta, the United States should hesitate to accept the proposition that while it ceases to wage war on Huerta that assassin is likely to encourage his followers to continue their assaults upon American citizens.

An armistice will be a very good thing for Huerta. During the life of the agreement he can procure more ammunition, and thus be prepared for the inevitable conflict which will follow the refusal of either Huerta or the United States to abide by the decision of the arbitrators. He can also through his agents, do missionary work among the rebels and may succeed in persuading Carranza or the unspeakable Villa to join him in attacking the United States. President Wilson's greatest blunder in Mexico was in neglecting or failing to push the American troops on to the capital and compelling Huerta to surrender or abscond, as this would have made mediation and its possible dishonorable results to the United States unnecessray.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Some of the township supervisors in this county have been using the split log drag on the highways with most beneficial results. Just why the supervisors in all of the townships do not employ this method of improving the highways in their districts is not understandable, as the split log drag is regarded as the most successful road maker in many states of the union. Its cheapness of construction and efficiency recommend it to road supervisors who have dirt roads to take care of.

There is no good reason why the dirt roads of Clearfield county should not be improved in a permanent manner this spring. This can be done with the use of the drag. The improvement which follows the use of the drag is so satisfactory that there ought to be a law compelling supervisors to use the apparatus on all township roads. For the sake of the convenience of farmers who have much hauling to do on the roads, as well as because of the economy of the operation, log drags should come into general use in this county this year.

We have been asked to protest against the visit of Queen Eleanora of Bulgaria to the United States, but must respectfully decline to interfere. Eleanor has as much right to come to this country, see its wonders and enjoy the antics of the smart set as any other foreigner has.

It's a problem with his friends whether Clerk Norris, of the county commissioners' office, shaved off his mustache that he might look younger or to increase his chances of being chosen to go to war in Mexico.

Warmer weather is predicted—sometime between now and the first of September.

Always it is an appropriate time to contribute to the liquidation of the hospital debt.

May Day Fete.

The final arrangements for the May Day fete will be made on Saturday morning in Witmer park at 10 o'clock. All children who are not there will not be permitted to take part in the fete.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidney if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Your Gardener

To produce the best results should be supplied with good tools. It matters not how good the seed may be if he does not thoroughly cultivate the soil you are "throwing good money to the birds." We have a line of

Garden Tools

All moderately priced and hard to beat. Shovels, hoes, spading forks, rakes, trowels, weeders, hand plows, barrows, mattocks, watering cans, pruning shears, etc.

And remember too that gardens and chickens do not mix well, i. e,—not well for the garden. So if you expect to get any "garden sass" it would be gaining a strategic point to throw a peaceable blockade around the chickens just now—and we have the material with which to do it—

Poultry Netting

Galvanized after weaving in both one and two inch mesh from one to six feet high. Cambria and Youngstown Poultry Fence, thirty-four to fifty-eight inches high. For the farm, barbed and smooth wire, hog and cattle woven fence.

Orders by telephone receive careful attention.

HUERTA'S VIEWS STILL UNKNOWN

Message to Vera Cruz Indicates Mediation Will Fail.

FUNSTON'S TROOPS LAND.

Army Relieves Navy of Duty of Maintaining Order in City—Marines and Jackies Thanked For Excellent Work While Ashore—Camps Erected and Civil Government Inaugurated.

Washington, May 1. — Although much satisfaction was expressed in official circles over the announcement by the representatives of Argentina, Brazil and Chile that General Carranza had accepted the "principle of mediation," absolutely no assurance has come from the rebel chieftain that he will cease hostilities against Huerta's forces.

Carranza's forces are proceeding against Saltillo and during the last few days have made serious inroads into the ranks of the federals contesting the approach on that city

The attack on Tampico is still in progress, and confidential reports to the state department confirm earlier fears that the great oil fields in the vicinity of that city are in danger of destruction.

The report was circulated that, much to the chagrin of the mediators, the suggestion was being considered again in administration circles of recognizing the belligerency of the Constitutionalists.

There is no question here of the fact that the administration feels exceedingly friendly toward the Constitutionalists and particularly toward General Villa.

No opportunity is lost to put forth official bulletins from consuls and others to show that the rebels are giving every protection to Americans in the territory they control

The following, posted at the White House and received from Consul William P. Blocker, is a sample

"After a personal conference with General Murguia, commander of the Carranzistas in Diaz, I have returned to my post and am carrying on consular duties

"The best of order prevails there, and Murguia has assured me that all foreigners and their property will be given absolute protection within Constitutionalist lines.

"Murguia says he will occupy Salinas as soon as the railroad is repaired and will endeavor to secure the stolen property of foreigners that was confiscated by federals, as was reported on April 18."

Mediators Draft Proposals.

The mediators began the drafting of a set of proposals to be officially submitted to the United States, Huerta and Carranza for the adjustment of the three cornered controversy. Up to the present time, it can be stated with authority, none of the parties to the controversy has submitted officially to the mediators his demands.

Unofficially, however, the mediators have been advised of the maximum grounds upon which each party will stand. It is now the task of the A B C powers to assemble these demands and reduce them to those issues which without arbitration are irreconcilable.

For example, they have been advised unofficially by Secretary Bryan that the United States will insist stubbornly on the elimination of Huerta; by Huerta that he does not intend to be eliminated, and by Carranza, it is understood, that he will not agree to Huerta having any say in the choice of a successor.

These apparently are the three big demands of the respective parties interested; and, despite the optimistic attitude of the administration, the mediators themselves apparently realize that their path is fraught with many pitfalls.

It is stated in quarters close to the mediators that, so unpromising is the prospect of Huerta agreeing to get out without a fight, the mediators appealed to Germany, France and England last Tuesday to urge the United States to modify its demand somewhat for Huerta's elimination.

This, it is stated, the European powers declined to do, indicating that they had no desire to interfere.

MANZANILLO NOT BOMBARDED

Secretary Tumulty Officially Denies Attack on Mexican Port.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Tumulty issued a denial that United States war vessels had bombarded Manzanillo, on the west coast of Mexico.

"The report of a bombardment apparently originated through an incendiary fire, which destroyed a number of buildings on the Manzanillo water front," said the president's secretary "We have been assured by the navy department that American guns have not been directed against Manzanillo or any other port on the west coast.

Responding to a request from the secretary of the navy as to the accuracy of reports that marines have been landed at Manzanillo and the town bombarded, Admiral Howard has sent the following message

"Unfounded There was an incendiary fire at Manzanillo, but we were not even there"

ORDERS EVACUATION OF PRISON UNDER SEA

Find That Inmates Were Tortured In San Juan de Ulloa.

Vera Cruz May 1—Rear Admiral Fletcher has ordered the immediate evacuation of the fortress of San Juan de Ulloa. Civil Governor Kerr was intrusted with the task of transferring the 116 prisoners remaining in the fortress, and at once will set about the details of the undertaking Some of the men, it is probable, will be liberated, while those who remain in custody will be sent to the military prison on the mainland or the jails of the city.

Commander Herman O Stickney of the Prairie, the new inspector of the port and customs, made the report on which Rear Admiral Fletcher based his decision. Commander Stickney found justification for the century old tradition that San Juan de Ulloa was the foulest prison on the North American continent

Many of the dungeons lie below the waterline with a rising tide. At such times the inmates, many of them half blind from long incarceration, were immersed. Others of the dungeons were so small that their occupants could not lie down. Ancient devices of torture were discovered, together with evidence that some of them had been in recent use.

Want a Camp at Pensacola.

Washington May 1—A delegation of citizens from Pensacola, Fla., headed by Mayor Greenhut and Senator Bryan, urged state, war and navy department heads to consider the advantages of Pensacola as a concentration camp in the event of hostilities in Mexico.

BRIEF MEXICAN NEWS.

Americans throughout Mexico are now believed to be safe.

Villa is preparing to attack Saltillo to curb restlessness among his troops, due to recent inaction

The Mexican gunboat Guerrero, at Manzanillo, is said to be waiting to take away Huerta if he flees the country

Huerta is reported to be planning flight from Mexico. His personal fortune, said to be about $5,000,000, is safe in Paris.

The navy department doubts the reported bombardment of Manzanillo, and so far as known there is no American warship there.

Fighting between federals and rebels at Tampico is reported by Admiral Badger The federal gunboats are said to control the situation

Manzanillo, a Pacific coast seaport, with direct railroad connection with Mexico City has been bombarded by American warships General Blanquet, Mexican war minister, has been informed

General Carranza, supreme chief of the Constitutionalists, has unconditionally accepted mediation of Mexican affairs generally This is supposed to be due to Villa's influence. General truce is likely.

There is perhaps no institution so broad in its service and so deserving of support as the hospital, and it is hoped that the people will express their appreciation of this service by returning the cards, each person pledged according to his means

MINE ACCIDENTS

Decline in Number of Fatalities in Bituminous Collieries

A statement issued by the State Department of Mines shows that the fatal accidents in and about the bituminous coal mines for the three months ending March 31 1914, numbered 108 as against 126 for the same period in 1913 The inside accidents numbered 98 as against 112 and the accidents on the surface 10 as against 14

Of the 98 killed inside during 1914 56 were killed by falls 24 by mine cars, 5 by suffocation from gas, 1 by explosives, 2 by premature blasts, 2 by falling into shafts and blast and 9 by miscellaneous causes

In 1913, 75 were killed by falls 24 by cars, 3 by explosives 1 by a blast and 9 by miscelleaneous causes

During 1914 the inside fatal accidents were 14 less than in 1913 The accidents on the surface were less in number

The catastrophe at Eccles will increase the figures for 1914 over those of 1913, and mars the prospects of a decided lowering of the death rate in the bituminous mines

PINCHOT HITS MONOPOLIES

Rousing Public Meeting Held in Philadelphia Wednesday

SPECIAL INTERESTS SCORED

Candidate Lewis Exposes the False Pretense of the Gang Legislators Who Defeated the Workman's Compensation Bill—Judge Brumm Wants the Rascals Turned Out.

At a rousing meeting held Wednesday night in Textile Hall, Kensington avenue and Cumberland street, in Philadelphia, stirring addresses were made in opposition to monopoly, special interests and bossism in politics by Gifford Pinchot, candidate for the Washington party nomination for United States senator, and William Draper Lewis and Judge Charles N. Brumm, candidates for the Washington party gubernatorial nomination.

Exposes the Gang.

Doctor Lewis exposed the false pretense of gang legislators who defeated the workman's compensation bill introduced in the last legislature.

"The argument was advanced to defeat the bill drawn by the state industrial accidents commission; that the adoption of such a law would ruin the small manufacturer and the small employer," he said. "This argument was one of the excuses the senate gave for carrying out the directions of its undisputed dictators that the bill be defeated."

Doctor Lewis aroused great enthusiasm when he said that in a recent visit to Indiana county he found that every man who had supported Roosevelt in 1912 intended to vote the Washington party ticket next November, and also that the ticket would receive the support of many who voted for Taft, as well as a large number of Democrats who will be disgruntled by the result at the primaries.

Pinchot Attacks Monopolies.

Mr. Pinchot declared that the monopoly of bossism in politics is as grave a menace to the welfare of the people as any other monopoly. The great task before the people, he said, is to eliminate monopoly of the natural resources of the country, and to abolish the evil of the power wielded by special interests aided by the political bosses.

One of the first monopolies he would fight is the anthracite monopoly which under forty men, controls 87 per cent. of the state's hard coal and compels Philadelphians to pay a dollar a ton more than they should pay. He urged the creation of a national commission which would have the power not only to fix the price of coal, but of all other great necessities of life.

Judge Brumm on Rascals.

Judge Brumm upheld the right of the workingman to form labor unions and declared that in that way only is he able to fight the combinations of capital. He was heartily applauded when he told how President Roosevelt brought the mine operators to terms in the great anthracite coal strike.

He was the right man in the right place at the right time the judge said, and added that if Colorado had such a man at the present time there would be no murdering of men women and children by the militia.

"Turn the rascals out, both elective and appointive, and give the state a thorough housecleaning," was urged by Judge Brumm as the only way to win a victory over despotism and political monopoly.

Being Rapidly Completed.

The building which will be used as a storage place for wagons, being erected on the rear of Al Kline's Locust street lot, is nearing completion.

STRAUSBAUGH GOES TO PEN

Strenuous Effort to Prevent His Return Is Ended

HAD VIOLATED HIS PAROLE

Judge Bell Decides That Governor Has Right to Issue His Mandate When He Believes a Paroled Prisoner Has Failed to Conduct Himself in an Orderly Manner.

Harry Strausbaugh was taken back to the Western penitentiary this morning by Charles R. Schaum, one of the officers of that institution. Thursday afternoon Judge Bell handed down his decree in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Attorney Chase in an endeavor to have Strausbaugh released from the custody of Chief of Police McHenry who arrested Strausbaugh on the charge of fighting and from whose custody the penitentiary authorities sought to take the prisoner to Pittsburgh, on the charge of violation of his parole.

Strausbaugh will have to serve the maximum term of the indeterminate sentence given him by the Clearfield county court in 1913 for assault and battery and resisting an officer.

Judge Bell's Conclusions.

After relating the history of the case and referring to the acts of assembly of 1909 and 1911 as to parole of prisoners, Judge Bell refers to the argument of counsel for Strausbaugh that "the mandate (of the governor) does not show a sufficient finding by the governor, in that the act requires that he may issue only "whenever it shall appear to the governor * * * that the convict * * * has violated the terms of his or her parole," and it is contended that it actually shows that it is issued purely on the representation of the board of inspectors that the terms of the parole have been violated. It was not necessary that the mandate should state anything on the subject. The issuance thereof by the governor would be presumed to be upon a finding by him of the facts, and it would sufficiently "appear" whenever he, upon

HOSPITAL BENEFIT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Musical Entertainment of a High Order to be Given

Citizens of Clearfield and vicinity will be given an opportunity to help the hospital and at the same time enjoy a first-class entertainment on Wednesday evening, May 6, when a program of music and moving pictures will be given at the opera hous for the benefit of the hospital.

The principal part of the program consists of twelve musical numbers, given by Clearfield's talented young people, among those taking part being sixteen young ladies and an equal number of young men. These thirty-two musicians will be under the leadership of Miss Nancy Miller and S .C .Stewart, Jr. The music and song for this event are new and have been specially procured for this occasion.

Miss Mary Mitchell, Clearfield's bright song bird, will favor the audience with two songs, and Paul Stauffer will be at his best. The Gerald F. Wallace company will furnish the orchestral numbers.

During the evening five reels of moving pictures will be thrown upon the canvas.

Considering the purpose for which this entertainment will be given and the excellence of the various numbers on the program, the price of admission is very low, being 50 cents for seats on the main floor and 25 cents for seats in the gallery.

The moving pictures start at 8.30.

Fighting on the Street.

Two fights took place on the street Thursday night. One party of pugilists escaped arrest, but in the other affray several young men were locked up or paid their fines.

800 U. S. TROOPS IN COAL FIELDS

Strikers Called on to Lay Down Their Arms.

MAY CONTINUE THE STRIFE.

Hotheads In Ranks Not Willing to Give Up the Fight—Horrors of the Campaign Told at Inquest Over Bodies of Victims of Ludlow Battle. Total Dead Forty-seven.

Denver, May 1.—The Colorado mine strike war has reached the crisis. With 800 United States cavalry in fighting array in the troubled zone the strikers had the choice of laying down their arms and quietly dispersing to their homes within twenty-four hours or facing the rifles and bayonets of the military upholders of the law.

There was no telling from the developments which course they would adopt. One thing is clear—hundreds of hotheads among the ranks of the strikers are not willing to "give up the fight" now that the lives of so many of their comrades have been sacrificed. This is evident from the fighting of the last twenty-four hours, which has claimed anywhere from fifteen to twenty lives. On the other hand, the strikers must realize that the federal troops will not bear trifling with and that continued resistance will only make their cause more hopeless.

Strikers Must Disarm.

In his proclamation President Wilson served notice that the strikers who are classed as "insurrectos" must abandon all show of disorder. Otherwise they will be proceeded against just as though they were rebels against the United States government.

The latest troop arrivals are the 350 members of the Second squadron of the Fifth United States infantry, which arrived at Trinidad from Fort Leavenworth. The officers of the squadron are under orders to disperse both sides. They started for the Ludlow district, where the fiercest fighting of the "war" has taken place.

Militia Withdrawn.

The state militia are already being withdrawn from the strike zone in accordance with the promise which Governor Ammons made to the authorities at Washington when he wired in his call for federal troops. The "evacuation" began when the cavalry called out from Fort Russell in Wyoming reached Canyon City yesterday. It was generally supposed that the state authorities would turn the situation over to the federal troops entirely.

The known dead and wounded in the fighting of the last ten days are numbered as follows:

At Ludlow—Dead, 25; wounded, 6.
At Forbes—Dead, 10; wounded, 7.
At Walsenburg and Vicinity—Dead, 5; wounded, 15.
At Louisville (northern field)—Dead, 2; wounded, 6.
At Chandler—Dead, 1; wounded, 3.
At Rouse—Dead, 1; wounded, 3.
At Aguilar—Dead, 3; wounded, 4.
Total—Dead, 47; wounded, 44.

Some of the many horrors of the trouble are being detailed during the inquest over the bodies of the twenty-five victims of the Ludlow battle. Fourteen children and two women were killed in these shambles.

MRS. SOPHIE BARRETT

Death Calls to Her Eternal Home an Estimable Woman.

Mrs .Sophie DeVincent Barrett, relic of the late Colonel Walter Barrett died at her home on Cherry street Thursday morning after an illness which had confined her to the house for several months. Mrs. Barrett was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander McCleod and was born in Meadville, Pa., on August 31, 1837. On May 29, 1866, she was united in marriage in Wilmington, Delaware, to Colonel Walter Barrett, son of the late Judge George Barrett and wife, her husband preceding her to the grave on February 23, 1900.

Mrs. Barrett was one of the most estimable of women. She was gracious and courteous at all times an active member of the Episcopal church and a woman of more than ordinary literary talents. She founded the Women's Relief corps of Larrimer post, G. A. R. of Clearfield, and was for a term president of the state organization.

The following brother and sisters survive: Mrs .A. R. Powell, Mrs. J. Kay Wrigley and Fenwick McLeod The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Rev. Joseph John officiating. Interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

CARRANZA WON'T STOP FIGHTING

United States May Recognize Rebel Government.

MEDIATORS DRAFT TERMS.

Learn What Positive Demands Are. Here is the Situation: Wilson Insists on Resignation of Huerta, Latter Refuses and Carranza Won't Consider Dictator.

Vera Cruz, May 1.—A different view is taken here regarding Huerta's attitude toward mediation. Messages received from the capital indicate that his agreement is not without reservation. His mind as to how far he will go to bring about peace has not been made up. Apparently he has never considered the demand to step down and out. It thus becomes evident that mediation is acceptable in principle only.

A message was received here from Lopez Portillo y Rojas, secretary of foreign affairs. He stated that until the details of mediation to which Mexico is willing to agree are decided upon no official statement would be forthcoming. He asserted that he hoped the mediation would bring a solution acceptable to the dignity of both governments.

It is not difficult to determine what will satisfy the dignity of the Mexican government in negotiations of this sort. Huerta is the Mexican government and must therefore be satisfied.

Some attribute to the dictator an intention to take refuge in flight when the time arrives or when American or Mexican troops are battering at the very gates of Mexico City. Those who have been close to him in the stormy months of revolt do not expect him to resign. This is one of the conditions laid down by the United States, and therefore it appears here there is but slight hope of success.

Funston's Troops Land.

The troops of the Fifth brigade under Brigadier General Frederick Funston landed in Vera Cruz from the four transports which came from Galveston and took over the city from the bluejackets who went back to their ships.

When once more upon land the soldiers were dispatched to the sandhills about the city, to the barracks and to other points where they relieved the sailors, while the marine corps was distributed to work with the army. Brigadier General Funston established his headquarters in the barracks deserted by General Gustavo Maas, the Mexican federal commander who fled from Vera Cruz after making a half hearted resistance to the American bluejackets and marines.

Rear Admiral Fletcher in addition to sending the bluejackets back to their ships also withdrew his staff and the staff of General Funston took hold. Admiral Fletcher in his order for the withdrawal of his men highly praised the naval officers and the jackies. He pointed to their valor in action as highly gratifying and also lauded their orderly conduct and perfect handling of the situation.

Admiral Fletcher then personally thanked his men and concluded by saying that the highest honor is due those who gave their lives in the service of their country.

THE JAIL LAWN

Civic Club Has Taken Good Care of the Property.

Editor Clearfield Progress — Will you kindly correct a statement in your last night's paper relative to the jail lawn. Several years ago the ladies of the Civil club took over that property by permission of the county authorities and changed it from a potato patch surrounding a pig pen to a lawn. Since that time the Civic club has been taking care of it year by year and giving it the same uniform attention, as the care of the property properly belongs to the county and was only taken over by the ladies of the Civic club as a matter of civic pride, we feel that the article criticizing us is unjust.

The ladies of the Civic club take this opportunity to thank Sheriff McCloskey for his proffered aid and are delighted that there is one good man who appreciates what they have done and will help them in what they are trying to do.

MEMBER CIVIC CLUB.

Junior Chautauqua.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Chautauqua at Lower Witmer park tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. All who wish to take part in the May Day fete must be present at this meeting.

BANQUETERS ARE DELIGHTED

Clearfield Odd Fellows Have Enjoyable Time

A FINE PROGRAM RENDERED

Nearly 300 Members of Lodge and Their Guests Listen to Splendid Music and Pleasing Recitations—Partake of Abundance of Good Victuals Served by Courteous Ladies.

Thursday night was a big night for the Odd Fellows of Clearfield and their friends, who, to the number of about 235, gathered in their spacious hall on Market street to participate in the annual banquet of the order The members o Lode No. 198, and their guests had a most enjoyable time from 8.30 to 12.00 o'clock. A pleasing program was given, the members being assisted by Miss Hulda Johnson, Mrs. Richard Patterson and Miss Josephine Hoyt. Miss Hoyt gave a recitation in a very interesting manner and the violin solo by Mrs. Patterson was heartily enjoyed. Miss Alice Smith was the pianist during the evening.

Listened to Speeches.

Speeches of an entertaining character were made by Rev. Claude Allenbach, pastor of the Lutheran church, Secretary Kester of the Y. M. C. and impromptu talks by Register and Recorder R. M. Reed, Prothonotary John H. Moore, Charles Graffius, William Boyce and John McCurdy.

The speech making gave the assemblage a keen appetite for the splendid banquet which had been prepared for them and the delicious viands of the menu were most acceptably served by the ladies of the West Side M. E. church. Many were the compliments received by by these ladies for the excellent manner in which they performed their duties as feeders of the hungry.

Master of Ceremonies.

John McCurdy was master of ceremonies, and filled the position in a creditable manner. Mr. McCurdy is fast becoming a past master in the duties of the position. The evening's events will long remain in the memories of those present, and the guests Thursday evening have only one regret—that these banquets are held but once a year.

AN AGED VETERAN DIES AT WALLACETON

F. P. Smith Passes Away After a Prolonged Illness

Wallaceton, May1, 1914.

Sorrow has overshadowed the Smith home. F.P. Smith, of Wallaceton, died Thursday morning, April 30, at 7.30 o'clock, aged 73 years, 2 months and 24 days. The subject of our sketch was a civil war veteran, a member of Co. C., 137th Penns. Vol. Inf. He served faithfully through out the conflict and received an honorable discharge. He had resided in Wallaceton for a number of years, having filled many borough offices and served on the election board for many years. Being sick and afflicted all winter with dropsy and a complication of diseases due to old age and rough army service, he was affectionately and tenderly cared for by his wife and children. His every wish was gratified; nothing was too hard to do to make his last moments happy. He passed away peacefully, being conscious to the last moment before going to the great beyond.

Mr .Smith was drawing a pension from the U. S. government for army service.

On July 17, 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Smith celebrated their golden wedding and on Feb. 6, 1914, they held a reunion of the family and friends, the occasion being Mr. Smith's 73rd birthday.

This death leaves a vacant place in the home that can never be refilled. The old arm chair is vacant. Father has left us to sorrow. He leaves to grieve over his loss the following children: Mrs. E. M. France, of Hollidaysburg, G. P. Smith, of Sandy Ridge; Mrs. M. W. Shivry, of Clearfield; Mrs. Francis Bottorf, Clair and Arthur, of Wallaceton.

WILL OLD SCALE BE ADOPTED?

Question Will Be Settled by Vote Next Monday

CIRCULAR FROM THE OFFICERS

Men Will Decide Whether or Not They Will Accept the Scale of or Strike Against the Proposition—Who are Eligible to Cast the Ballots.

Ballots to be used by the miners of District No. 2 on Monday next, in voting distributed. The miners will decide whether or not they will accept for the next two years the scale of wages adopted in 1912.

The following circular, signed by the officers of the local union, accompanies the ballots:

The Circular.

Clearfield, Pa., April 30, 1914.

To the membership of District No. 2, U. M. W. of A.,

Greeting:—

You will find enclosed a copy of the proposition submitted by the operators' association of Central Pennsylvania as their ultimatum to our scale committee at a meeting held in Clearfield, Saturday, April 25. This copy of the operators' ultimatum will be self explanatory. Your scale committee fought until the last minute for relief on the car pushing, a specified scale for day-men and the abolition of machines in pillaring and stumps, but every proposition was voted down and all concessions were absolutely refused by the operators.

What Vote Means.

The miners' scale committee decided to vote or sign the proposition as submitted by the operators and it is now submitted to our membership for their consideration to vote whether or not to accept or reject the proposition. The joint conference adjourned sine die on Saturday, April 25, without any arrangement being made for any further negotiations if the operators' proposition is rejected. A vote to accept means the renewal of last year's scale in its entirety; a vote to reject means that you vote to strike against its acceptance.

Ballots in sufficient numbers to supply each member with a copy have been sent under separate cover to the secretaries of the various local unions, to assist the members in registering their vote. Monday is hereby ordered on Monday, May 4, 1914, as mentioned in previous circular for the purpose of taking the vote on the proposition submitted.

Who May Vote.

Upon the vote being given local unions will immediately send the result to the district office stating plainly how many votes were cast "No" and how many votes were cast "Yes" with the number of the local union and town located thereon signed by the president and secretary of the local union. The result of the voting to reach the district office, Clearfield, Pa., not later than Wednesday, May 6, 1914.

The only parties eligible to vote on the acceptance or rejection of this proposition are men who are paying check-off. You are requested to read the instructions herein contained and also the instructions printed on the ballot and govern yourselves accordingly.

Fraternally yours,
Patrick Gilday, Pres.
James Purcell, V. Pres.
Richard Gilbert, Sec-Treas.

A Class Party.

The members of the Freshman class of the High school will hold a party in the High school building tonight.

Restaurant Changes Hands.

W. D. Crispin, of Oil City, has purchased the Blue Ball Restaurant from B. B. Gearhart and has taken charge of the place.

A DuBois Wedding.

Quay J. Grube and Miss Ruby B. Bitmer, two young people of DuBois were married in that place last evening.

He Will a Farmer Be.

Frank Howe, having retired from the hotel business at Winburne, has purchased a farm near Morrisdale, and will till the soil hereafter.

COMING EVENTS.

Election of county superintendent of schools, May 5.
Primary election Tuesday, May 19.
General election Tuesday, Nov. 3.
Saturday, May 2, May Day at the Driving Park.

Good evening! Well, be thankful that the April showers are past.

AN ARMISTICE.

The arbitrators in the dispute between the United Sttes and Mexico have asked these two countries to agree to an armistice while negotiations are in progress. This means that if an amistice is consented to by the two republics, neither shall commit an overt act against the other. Realizing that Mexico is in a state of anarchy, with a brutal butcher at the head of the putative government and at least three bloodthirsty insurrectionists are in the field striving to overthrow Huerta, the United States should hesitate to accept the proposition that while it ceases to wage war on Huerta that assassin is likely to encourage his followers to continue their assaults upon American citizens.

An armistice will be a very good thing for Huerta. During the life of the agreement he can procure more ammunition, and thus be prepared for the inevitable conflict which will follow the refusal of either Huerta or the United States to abide by the decision of the arbitrators. He can also through his agents, do missionary work among the rebels and may succeed in persuading Carranza or the unspeakable Villa to join him in attacking the United States. President Wilson's greatest blunder in Mexico was in neglecting or failing to push the American troops on to the capital and compelling Huerta to surrender or abscond, as this would have made mediation and its possible dishonorable results to the United States unnecessray.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Some of the township supervisors in this county have been using the split log drag on the highways with most beneficial results. Just why the supervisors in all of the townships do not employ this method of improving the highways in their districts is not understandable, as the split log drag is regarded as the most successful road maker in many states of the union. Its cheapness of construction and efficiency recommend it to road supervisors who have dirt roads to take care of.

There is no good reason why the dirt roads of Clearfield county should not be improved in a permanent manner this spring. This can be done with the use of the drag. The improvement which follows the use of the drag is so satisfactory that there ought to be a law compelling supervisors to use the apparatus on all township roads. For the sake of the convenience of farmers who have much hauling to do on the roads, as well as because of the economy of the operation, log drags should come into general use in this county this year.

We have been asked to protest against the visit of Queen Eleanora of Bulgaria to the United States, but must respectfully decline to interfere. Eleanor has as much right to come to this country, see its wonders and enjoy the antics of the smart set as any other foreigner has.

It's a problem with his friends whether Clerk Norris, of the county commissioners' office, shaved off his mustache that he might look younger or to increase his chances of being chosen to go to war in Mexico.

Warmer weather is predicted—sometime between now and the first of September.

Always it is an appropriate time to contribute to the liquidation of the hospital debt.

May Day Fete.

The final arrangements for the May Day fete will be made on Saturday morning in Witmer park at 10 o'clock. All children who are not there will not be permitted to take part in the fete.

ALL LINES MERGED

N. Y. C. and Lake Shore Consolidation is Effective.

Directors of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co. Wednesday adopted the agreement consolidating the Central, the Lake Shore, the Michigan Southern and various subsidiaries of the Vanderbilt lines, under one head, with a blanket mortgage of $300,000,000 recently authorized by the interstate commerce commission.

A statement announces the New York Central and Lake Shore are the principal parties to the agreement and that the name of the consolidated company will be the New York Central Railroad company.

Of the capital stock of $300,000,000 $249,590,500 will be issued to the stockholders of the consolidated companies and $50,409,500 will be reserved for issue from time to time, as authorized by the directors.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidney if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

HUERTA'S VIEWS STILL UNKNOWN

Message to Vera Cruz Indicates Mediation Will Fail.

FUNSTON'S TROOPS LAND.

Army Relieves Navy of Duty of Maintaining Order in City—Marines and Jackies Thanked For Excellent Work While Ashore—Camps Erected and Civil Government Inaugurated.

Washington, May 1. — Although much satisfaction was expressed in official circles over the announcement by the representatives of Argentina, Brazil and Chile that General Carranza had accepted the "principle of mediation," absolutely no assurance has come from the rebel chieftain that he will cease hostilities against Huerta's forces.

Carranza's forces are proceeding against Saltillo and during the last few days have made serious inroads into the ranks of the federals contesting the approach on that city

The attack on Tampico is still in progress, and confidential reports to the state department confirm earlier fears that the great oil fields in the vicinity of that city are in danger of destruction.

The report was circulated that, much to the chagrin of the mediators, the suggestion was being considered again in administration circles of recognizing the belligerency of the Constitutionalists.

There is no question here of the fact that the administration feels exceedingly friendly toward the Constitutionalists and particularly toward General Villa.

No opportunity is lost to put forth official bulletins from consuls and others to show that the rebels are giving every protection to Americans in the territory they control

The following, posted at the White House and received from Consul William P. Blocker, is a sample

"After a personal conference with General Murguia, commander of the Carranzistas in Diaz, I have returned to my post and am carrying on consular duties

"The best of order prevails there, and Murguia has assured me that all foreigners and their property will be given absolute protection within Constitutionalist lines.

"Murguia says he will occupy Salinas as soon as the railroad is repaired and will endeavor to secure the stolen property of foreigners that was confiscated by federals, as was reported on April 18."

Mediators Draft Proposals.

The mediators began the drafting of a set of proposals to be officially submitted to the United States, Huerta and Carranza for the adjustment of the three cornered controversy. Up to the present time, it can be stated with authority, none of the parties to the controversy has submitted officially to the mediators his demands.

Unofficially, however, the mediators have been advised of the maximum grounds upon which each party will stand. It is now the task of the A B C powers to assemble these demands and reduce them to those issues which without arbitration are irreconcilable.

For example, they have been advised unofficially by Secretary Bryan that the United States will insist stubbornly on the elimination of Huerta; by Huerta that he does not intend to be eliminated, and by Carranza, it is understood, that he will not agree to Huerta having any say in the choice of a successor.

These apparently are the three big demands of the respective parties interested; and, despite the optimistic attitude of the administration, the mediators themselves apparently realize that their path is fraught with many pitfalls.

It is stated in quarters close to the mediators that, so unpromising is the prospect of Huerta agreeing to get out without a fight, the mediators appealed to Germany, France and England last Tuesday to urge the United States to modify its demand somewhat for Huerta's elimination.

This, it is stated, the European powers declined to do, indicating that they had no desire to interfere.

MANZANILLO NOT BOMBARDED

Secretary Tumulty Officially Denies Attack on Mexican Port.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Tumulty issued a denial that United States war vessels had bombarded Manzanillo, on the west coast of Mexico.

"The report of a bombardment apparently originated through an incendiary fire, which destroyed a number of buildings on the Manzanillo water front," said the president's secretary "We have been assured by the navy department that American guns have not been directed against Manzanillo or any other port on the west coast.

Responding to a request from the secretary of the navy as to the accuracy of reports that marines have been landed at Manzanillo and the town bombarded, Admiral Howard has sent the following message

"Unfounded There was an incendiary fire at Manzanillo, but we were not even there"

ORDERS EVACUATION OF PRISON UNDER SEA

Find That Inmates Were Tortured In San Juan de Ulloa.

Vera Cruz May 1—Rear Admiral Fletcher has ordered the immediate evacuation of the fortress of San Juan de Ulloa. Civil Governor Kerr was intrusted with the task of transferring the 116 prisoners remaining in the fortress, and at once will set about the details of the undertaking Some of the men, it is probable, will be liberated, while those who remain in custody will be sent to the military prison on the mainland or the jails of the city.

Commander Herman O Stickney of the Prairie, the new inspector of the port and customs, made the report on which Rear Admiral Fletcher based his decision. Commander Stickney found justification for the century old tradition that San Juan de Ulloa was the foulest prison on the North American continent

Many of the dungeons lie below the waterline with a rising tide. At such times the inmates, many of them half blind from long incarceration, were immersed. Others of the dungeons were so small that their occupants could not lie down. Ancient devices of torture were discovered, together with evidence that some of them had been in recent use.

Want a Camp at Pensacola.

Washington May 1—A delegation of citizens from Pensacola, Fla., headed by Mayor Greenhut and Senator Bryan, urged state, war and navy department heads to consider the advantages of Pensacola as a concentration camp in the event of hostilities in Mexico.

BRIEF MEXICAN NEWS.

Americans throughout Mexico are now believed to be safe.

Villa is preparing to attack Saltillo to curb restlessness among his troops, due to recent inaction

The Mexican gunboat Guerrero, at Manzanillo, is said to be waiting to take away Huerta if he flees the country

Huerta is reported to be planning flight from Mexico. His personal fortune, said to be about $5,000,000, is safe in Paris.

The navy department doubts the reported bombardment of Manzanillo, and so far as known there is no American warship there.

Fighting between federals and rebels at Tampico is reported by Admiral Badger The federal gunboats are said to control the situation

Manzanillo, a Pacific coast seaport, with direct railroad connection with Mexico City has been bombarded by American warships General Blanquet, Mexican war minister, has been informed

General Carranza, supreme chief of the Constitutionalists, has unconditionally accepted mediation of Mexican affairs generally This is supposed to be due to Villa's influence. General truce is likely.

the information brought to his notice, issued the mandate"

Decree of the Court.

Judge Bell says that the governor must have been satisfied by this representations o the inspectors that Strausbaugh had violated his parole and should be returned to the penitentiary The court says "If the parole proceedings have any validity, the mandate of the governor is entitled to enforcement, unless it shows on its face that it is void and, as previously stated, while it is not well drawn it is not void It follows, therefore, that in either alternative the relator must be remanded

"Now, April 30, 1914, it is ordered that the prisoner, be remanded to the custody of Earl McHenry, chief of police, in whose detention he has been under this proceeding, and that he be by the said Earl McHenry delivered to C R Schaum or such other person as shall be duly authorized by the warden of the Western penitentiary to receive the said Harry Strausbaugh

THE NEBRASKA WAY

Saloon Keepers Must Pay Damages for Making Drunkards.

Finding no constitutional objection to a law making saloonkeepers liable for damages resulting from their sale of liquor, the supreme court dismissed the appeal of Louis W Prenica, a saloonkeeper of Nebraska City Neb from a judgment of the Nebraska courts holding him liable in the sum of $5000 to Mrs May Bulger for her husband becoming a habitual drunkard

A Nebraska law gives the wife and children of men who become habitual drunkards an action against saloonkeepers who sell them liquor Mrs Bulgar got verdicts against saloonekepers who had sold liquor her husband, a paper hanger, and an appeal was taken by Prenica and his bondsmen, with the above result

ONLY SEVENTY GUESTS AT ASTOR WEDDING

Honeymoon Trip to Be Delayed by His Illness.

Staatsburg N Y, May 1—As the outcome of a romance which began when they were childhood playmates, Vincent Astor head of the Astor family in this country and regarded as the wealthiest young man in the United States, and Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Robert P Huntington, were married in Hopeland House, the beautiful home of the brides parents here

Because of the illness of Mr Astor the wedding was a small one, although originally it had been arranged to invite hundreds of their friends

Mr Astor and Miss Huntington were reluctant to change the arrangements but the condition of Mr Astor necessitated a slight change in the program His physician urged him to have a quiet wedding that he might not be subjected to too much excitement As a result the guests did not number more than seventy

The Rev Charles H Duncan rector of St Margaret's Episcopal church of Staatsburg officiated The wedding was solemnized in the Elizabethan library at the southwest corner, on the ground floor The room was decorated with blossoms from the Huntington conservatories This room overlooks the Hudson river

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC

Directors of Hospital Desire to Pay Off Debt.

The members of the board of directors of the Clearfield hospital are starting a campaign to raise money to pay off the debt of the hospital, and thus meet the conditions of the generous gift of A W Lee Letters and cards will be mailed to the citizens of Clearfield and residents of other parts of the county served by this hospital, asking them to subscribe to this fund

The amount of the outstanding debt at present is $11,897 84 Of this amount at least $5,100 can be accounted for

There is perhaps no institution so broad in its service and so deserving of support as the hospital, and it is hoped that the people will express their appreciation of this service by returning the cards, each person pledged according to his means

MINE ACCIDENTS

Decline in Number of Fatalities in Bituminous Collieries

A statement issued by the State Department of Mines shows that the fatal accidents in and about the bituminous coal mines for the three months ending March 31 1914, numbered 108 as against 126 for the same period in 1913 The inside accidents numbered 98 as against 112 and the accidents on the surface 10 as against 14

Of the 98 killed inside during 1914 56 were killed by falls 24 by mine cars, 5 by suffocation from gas, 1 by explosives, 2 by premature blasts, 2 by falling into shafts and blast and 9 by miscellaneous causes

In 1913, 75 were killed by falls 24 by cars, 3 by explosives 1 by a blast and 9 by miscelleaneous causes

During 1914 the inside fatal accidents were 14 less than in 1913 The accidents on the surface were less in number

The catastrophe at Eccles will increase the figures for 1914 over those of 1913, and mars the prospects of a decided lowering of the death rate in the bituminous mines
